What is a missional leader?

Created by SBTS
from Noun Project

If we are going to develop Missional Leaders
we need to agree on some terms.

Definitions:

- What is missional?

What is “missional”?

And what you have heard

“A theologically rooted vision of the church as a community called to participate in God's mission in and for the world.”

J. Todd Billings

What is “missional”?

A missional church is a church that is “on mission” in its setting.

Ed Stetzer

Definitions:

- What is missional?
- What is a leader?

Leader

The person who stands at the front of a group or project to move it forward responsibly and zealously in order to serve people and accomplish God's purposes.

LEADERSHIP FOR THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY

JOSEPH C. ROST

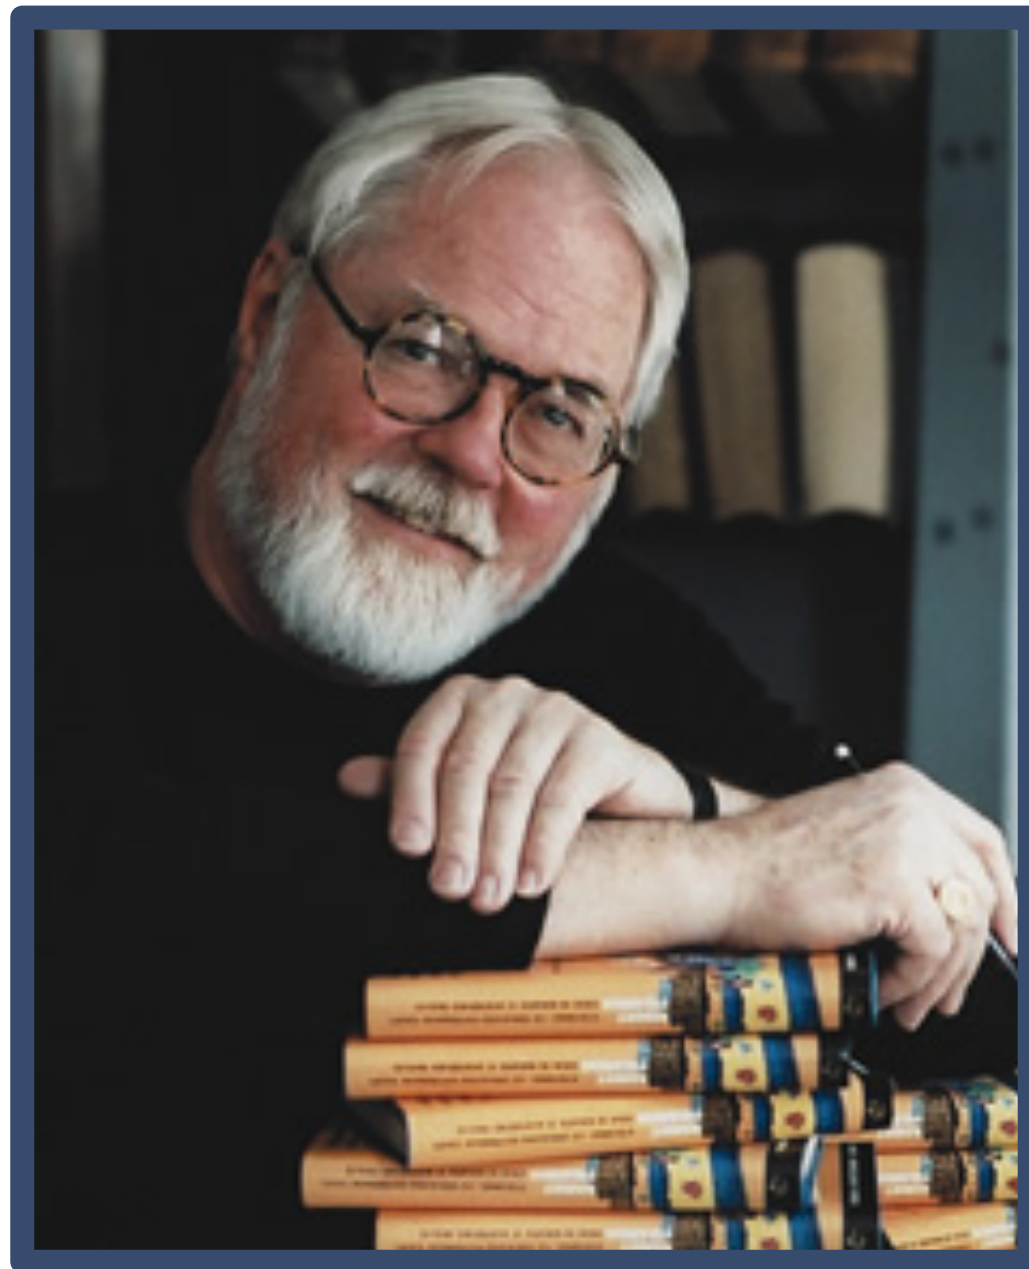

“Leadership is an influencing relationship between leaders and followers who intend real changes that reflect their mutual purposes”

Joseph Rost

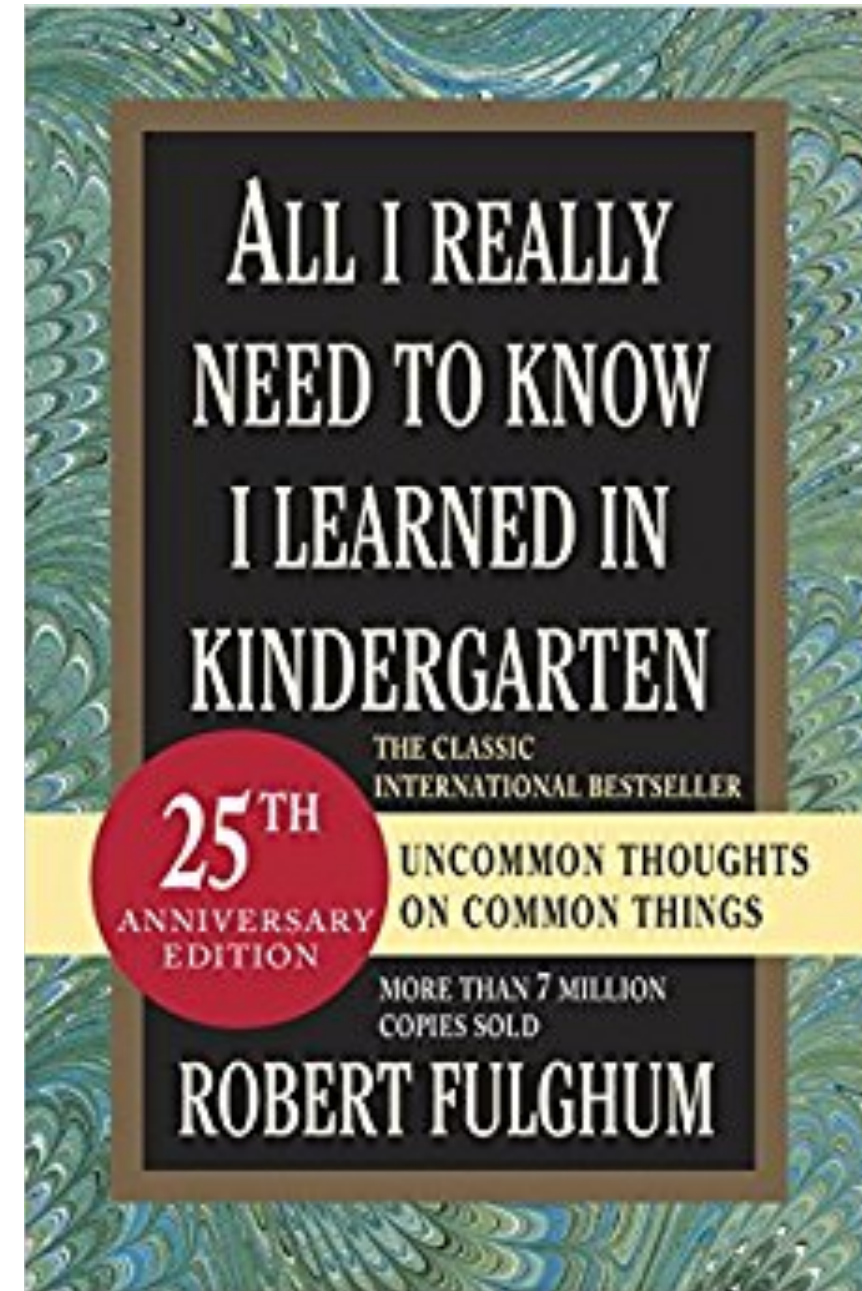

The Question:

How do we raise up leaders who will work with us to influence our church to live “on mission” in our setting?

All I really need to know ...

from me in the presence of many witnesses
entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

Who is your apprentice leader?

5. Have I conducted an audit on my efforts?
who will be able to teach others also

Five questions I must answer:

1. What is the mission?
2. Am I living missionally?
3. What is my plan to develop missional leaders?
4. Can I identify potential leaders?
5. Have I conducted an audit of my efforts?
